IT IS A GOOD SAFE.

The One in the Office of the Benton Harbor Electric
Railroad Company.

EXPERTS CANNOT OPEN IT.

One Individual, a Friend of Mr.
Deam, Wants the Job for
the Sum of $10.

Every safe agent or expert who visits Benton Harbor finds his way by a sort of instinct to the office of the Benton Harbor Electric Railroad Company where the large safe is locked and the combination carried away in the head of the Vice President of the company, Henry D. Deam.

As a usual thing the safe men want big pay for doing the job, asking $1 for the first hour and 50 cents for each succeeding hour. Others are frank enough to admit that the five-wheel combination cannot be picked except by chance in a lifetime.

The other day a safe man, a bright young German, came along and declared that he could open it in a few hours. He worked faithfully all day and at night gave up in despair.

A young man in this city claiming to be a safe expert, wants to open the safe for the sum of $10 and has made several visits to the office of the company to explain his proposition. His offers have been rejected as it is believed that Deam has divulged to him the combination and that the $10 will be divided between the safe expert and the vice president.

The officers of the company are not anxious to have the safe opened unless Deam opens it. They are willing to bide their time and wait until Deam comes here on a week day and the order of the court is served upon him and he marches down to the office like a chicken to the dough and gives up the combination which he wrongfully and secretly gave a safe not his own.

TAKES A VACATION.

Probate Judge Van Riper Leaves for
the Pine Woods.

Probate Judge Van Riper left last night on a four weeks' outing among the lakes and pine woods of northern Wisconsin. He took with him a complete angling outfit and will spend his time fishing for black bass, pike and muskallonge.

The judge has not had a vacation in four years and the close confinement and arduous duties of his office have had a disastrous effect on his nervous system, which he hopes to overcome in the northern woods.

The duties of the office in the absence of the judge will be in charge of C. M. VanRiper, clerk of the probate court.

AMONG THE CRIMINALS.

Edward Jeslain Obtains Bail and is Released.

Edward Jeslain, accused of attempting a murderous assault upon Officer O'Brien, was admitted to bail late yesterday afternoon and pending his hearing Thursday before Justice Graves will enjoy the freedom of a common citizen. His bail bond, given in the sum of $2,000, contains two sureties, Charles Young and Monroe Morrow.

Edward Shipley and Charles C. Hall are having a trial by jury before Justice Baldrey this afternoon on the charge of assault and battery, committed upon Emanuel Brunbaugh yesterday. The defendants are represented by Prosecutor Valentine.

John Larson, the Swede who resisted First Mate Russell of the steamer City of Chicago Sunday afternoon, while the latter was trying to restrain the rebellious passenger, was charged with drunkenness and paid a fine of $5 and costs in Justice Baldrey's court. He was arrested by Officer Walker.

The rain yesterday afternoon was instrumental in placing at least $3 in the city treasury of St. Joseph. Wheelmen were not inclined to ride along the streets in the mud and in many instances turned their silent steeds onto the sidewalks. Three cyclists were so unfortunate as to let the officers see them on the walks. They each paid $1 fine and costs. Their names are William Roeder, Nelson Maher and Lloyd Shepard.

Officer Crawford arrested two "drunks" today and invited them to enjoy the hospitality of the city jailer until they sober up.

A young lady boarding at the American house in St. Joseph reported to the police that she had been held up and robbed of $2 last night at the hotel. The police are investigating the case.

Peach Trees.

We have the finest lot of seedling trees in Berrien county, nearly twice as large as those of any other local concern. We will bud to order without additional cost, any variety that you may wish to furnish buds from. Several orders are already in. Budding will begin at once.

THE WEATHER.

Fair tonight and Wednesday, slightly cooler tonight.

THE NEW FACTORY.

It Will Begin Operation Here September 15.

The Kalamazoo company which is disposed to bring its big implement factory to this city, will be ready to commence manufacturing here September 15, next. The company asks that the city furnish a building, and further than this it has no demands to make.

President Miller announces a meeting of the board of trade to occur tomorrow night when a committee will be selected to secure a building favorable for the location of the new industry. The company manufactures farming implements, sulks and light wagons, and is doing an extensive business at Kalamazoo, running on full time continually. The object of bringing the plant to Benton Harbor is to acquire better shipping facilities.

The factory will start with 20 men and increase the number as the demand for the products require. The company is composed of men of financial means and the fact that no bonus is asked indicates that the company is acting in good faith in seeking a location here.

Every member of the board of trade should demonstrate his interest in the city's welfare by attending tomorrow night's meeting.

A $40,000 HOTEL.

Its Construction in Benton Harbor
Is Contemplated By Eastern Capitalists.

ARE LOOKING FOR A LOCATION.

Hall & Nichols Have Been Approached and Invited to Fix a Price on Their Property.

Representatives of a syndicate of eastern capitalists are in Benton Harbor and are looking for a site here upon which to construct a hotel at a cost of $40,000.

Hall & Nichols, the owners of the very desirable corner lot upon which their drug store now stands, were approached by the hotel proprietors this morning and invited to fix a price on the property. Other holders of desirable properties have been interviewed regarding the value of their possessions and the business-like way in which the promoters of the new enterprise are seeking to obtain land indicates good faith on the part of the syndicate to establish a magnificent hotel in Benton Harbor.

Before another day it is expected that the site will be secured, and the assurance given that work on the contemplated structure will begin at once. As proposed the hotel will be constructed on a very elaborate plan, its appointments to be luxurious and convenient.

There is need of such a structure in Benton Harbor and the proposition should be heartily encouraged.

BIG CARGO OF COAL.

It is Delivered Here to the Benton
Fuel Co.

The schooner Middlesex, in tow of the barge James H. Prentice, arrived in port this morning with a cargo of 800 tons of coal for the Benton Fuel company. The cargo is being discharged over the Big Four docks. The barge carried a heavy cargo of coal which she is unloading at the dock of Wallace & Son, St. Joseph.

CAR FERRY NO. 4 HERE.

It Arrived This Morning With 18
Loaded Cars.

In spite of the prediction that Benton Harbor had seen the last of the car ferries, ferry No. 4 arrived at its dock in this city about 9 o'clock this morning carrying eighteen loaded cars for traffic over the Big Four.

Just when the boat will return to Manitowoc is not known but it is expected that the business will be such that by the first of next month three or four trips will be made each week.

FACTORY BUILDING BURNED.

Buchanan Has a Property Loss of Several Thousand.

BUCHANAN, August 10—Fire yesterday destroyed the abandoned factory building owned by Black & Willard. The loss will not exceed $2,000. The factory had not been in operation for years. A few years ago the machinery was removed and the building converted into a skating rink. Lately it has been devoted to no particular purpose. It is supposed the building was fired from a spark from a locomotive on the Milwaukee, Benton Harbor & Columbus.

Situation at Coffeen Does Not Change for the Better, It Seems.

STRIKERS NOT ALLOWED IN TOWNS.

Men at Work in the Mines and Insist on Being Protected—"Gen." Bradley Goes to See Gov. Tanner—Ray Reports Rather Badly—Other Western Strike News—Hunger Doing Work for the Operators in the Pittsburgh District.

St. Louis, Aug. 10.—A special to The Republic from Coffeen, Ill., says: This town is under martial law. A force of 235 armed deputy sheriffs is guarding the town, and particularly the property of the Coffeen Coal and Copper company. One hundred and twenty-five men were at work in the shaft yesterday under protection of an armed force. They refused to work unless the sheriff's posse stood guard at the mine entrance to prevent the possibility of an onslaught from the strikers. "General" Bradley's men are encamped 300 strong in the woods just west of town. They have been forbidden to enter the village under penalty of arrest. Deputy sheriffs carrying shotguns, Winchester and other weapons stand guard at every roadway running in here and no one is allowed to enter unless he can show that his business is of a nature having no connection with the strike.

Bradley went to Springfield yesterday for a conference with Governor Tanner. Until his return nothing is apt to be done. He will be on the ground again this morning and then it is expected that the strikers will move on the town. Early yesterday morning President J. L. Taylor, of the town board, accompanied by B. B. Ray, the personal representative of Governor Tanner, went to the mine and addressed the miners. In reply to questions he asked, the miners said they wanted the guards about the pits retained; declared they wished for no conference with the strikers, and said they were entirely satisfied to stay at work. Ray then held a conference with the strikers and made them a speech, in which he sympathized with their condition.

Miners Decide to March. Springfield, Ill., Aug. 10.—A state Register special from Lincoln says the miners of that city met and decided unanimously to march tomorrow morning to Mount Pulaski and endeavor to get the miners there to strike, and from there go to Niantic on a similar mission; and from there to Decatur, where delegations from Springfield, Pana, and other places will meet them. The operators at Lincoln offered their men work every day in the week—they have been having but two days' work per week on an average—if they would return to work. The proposition was declined.

Gov. Tanner Hears from Coffeen. Springfield, Ill., Aug. 10.—Governor Tanner yesterday morning received a telegram from B. B. Ray, whom he dispatched to Coffeen Sunday to examine into and report the situation at that place, growing out of the movement of coal miners. The telegram said: "Everything is quiet this morning. I have advised the sheriff to reduce his force. Not over 200 miners are encamped. I was at their camp at 5 o'clock this morning. They show exceedingly good temper. About fifty miners went down to work this morning. I will stay here today and keep you fully advised."

Iowa Miners Not Likely to Strike. Ottumwa, Ia., Aug. 10.—The meeting of Iowa miners here yesterday decided not to strike in sympathy with the easterners, but assessed all the men 25 cents a week for aid. The meeting was poorly attended, only a fourth of the number of miners in the state being represented. At first the sentiment was for a strike, and agitators from Illinois worked hard at the men to declare a strike. The men decided that they could do no good ordering a strike with such a small number and passed a resolution ordering notices sent out to all the camps in the state for another meeting at Oskaloosa, Aug. 19. If two-thirds of the miners in the state signify their intention of sending delegates the meeting will be held, if not it will be called off. As it is not thought possible to get this number to make a move to strike, it is probable that a meeting will not occur. The sympathy move with the easterners is at an end, and each camp will settle its own scale and grievances with the operators.

DE ARMIT IS HARD AT WORK.

Makes a House-to-House Canvass of His Men—Strikers Are Busy.

Pittsburg, Aug. 10.—Thomas B. De Armit, superintendent of the New York and Cleveland Gas Coal company, worked hard yesterday to get the miners at Oak Hill to return to work. By a house-to-house canvass he succeeded in getting a few more diggers than had been at work. Thirty-seven miners went in. The men were told by De Armit that they would lose all they had earned if they would not work, and would be given five days to vacate the company houses. The strikers say that only 75 men out of 235 were at work in the Plum Creek mine yesterday. The company claims that almost a full force was working. The strikers are hopeful that the remaining diggers will quit work after getting their pay. The Plum Creek men were not paid yesterday and it is expected that the company will require the men to sign a new agreement before they are given their envelopes.

The Sandy Creek miners are awaiting developments. They are hopeful the courts will set aside the contracts of the company which the men signed before they went to work. Hunger is doing more injury to the cause of the miners than any other one thing, and the commissary department is doing everything to provide against this contingency. President Dolan will go to the Canonsburg region and do the "impression" by speaking at a meeting scheduled for the 15th inst. There is to be a meeting by Alex. DeArmit, located near Wilmington. This mine has been supplying the De Armit company with coal. Another party marched to Oak Hill as usual, and the third company went to Sandy Creek. The Boone mine at Canonsburg started unexpectedly yesterday with thirty-five men, and this morning a marching force of about 800 men marched and encamped about this mine to shut it down.

J. C. Dyar, a member of the uniformity commission, returned to the city yesterday after a week's absence. He says the work of securing signatures will be pushed earnestly, and he believes the required number will be secured. The miners, he says, cannot possibly win the strike, as the mines still in operation can supply the demand. Some of the coal operators are getting restless and threaten to attempt to start their mines this week. W. H. Simmons, a large coal dealer, says there is no scarcity of coal. Sunday night 250 cars of coal came into Pittsburg from West Virginia and large quantities are being shipped to Pittsburg from the mines along the Pennsylvania railroad.

IN THE INDIANA POCKET.

Probability That the Miners at Decatur and Evansville Will Quit.

Evansville, Ind., Aug. 10.—The situation at this place is still unsettled. The striking miners tried to induce the men of the John Ingle Coal company to go out, but were only partly successful. Another effort will be made today and it is confidently expected that all the men will go out. At a mass meeting held here last night in the West End park every miner in this locality expressed sympathy for the movement, and the majority of them signified their intention of joining the strike. The John Ingle Company got out an injunction proceeding against the strikers last yesterday afternoon, and Judge Mattison set Sept. 20 as the date to hear the case. The outlook here is more hopeful for the miners than it has been at any time yet.

It was feared before the advent of the strike that they would meet with but little encouragement, but the tide now seems to have turned in their favor. Another mass meeting will be held at 9 o'clock this morning and the strikers will be at the various mines to induce the miners to attend the meeting. A special from Sullivan, Ind., says that the striking miners throughout the Indiana field were supplied with food yesterday, over 5,000 being fed at Brazil. Crusaders are again on the march from there to Evansville, from which point they will cross into Kentucky and endeavor to close the St. Bernard mines. It is estimated here that 3,000 miners will be in Evansville this morning.

Judge Denounced as a Law-Breaker.

Chicago, Aug. 10.—Judge Jackson was denounced as a lawbreaker at the Sunday afternoon meeting of Local Branch No. 1, Social Democracy of America. It was declared that he should be punished for infraction of the law. The resolution enumerates as his crimes that he has overridden the constitution by forbidding certain persons to walk on the public highways, and has prevented free speech and free assemblage, and closes with a hint that it may be necessary to fight for those rights.

Little Interest Is Manifested.

Wilmington, N. C., Aug. 10.—An election is going on throughout North Carolina today on the question of additional taxes for support of the public schools. But little interest has been manifested and there is no doubt that the movement for the additional tax will be overwhelmingly defeated.

Did He Try It on the Child?

Dayton, O., Aug. 10.—Morris Eppler, aged 8, found a revolver, and while trying the weapon, shot and killed Rudolph Freikle, aged 3. He dragged the body into the yard and went to bed, but is now in jail.

SECOND YEAR—NO. 574.

BENTON HARBOR, MICH., TUESDAY, AUGUST 10, 1897.

IS A GREAT EVIL.

Benton Harbor and St. Joseph Girls Said to be Allowed a Dangerous Freedom.

FREQUENT STREETS AT NIGHT.

And Become the Victims of Unscrupulous and Vicious Young Men.

"There is an evil in Benton Harbor and St. Joseph greater and more far-reaching in its influence than violations of the liquor law or Barnum & Bailey's circus, and I am surprised that the clergy have not touched upon it. It is the practice of allowing young girls and boys to wander about the streets unattended by brothers, sisters or parents."

The above was expressed by a prominent church worker yesterday and the earnestness with which he proceeded to point out the error of this practice—the pitfalls and snares that await the children who are allowed this freedom—was convincing and suggested the institution of immediate steps to prevent the evil.

"I have seen girls under 16 years stroll along the streets with young men five years their senior as late as 11 and 12 o'clock," continued the speaker "and I wondered if the mothers of these tender and unsuspecting creatures realized the danger their daughters were exposed to. This practice is unsafe in any city but especially is it true that a young girl who is allowed to frequent the streets in these two cities where there are so many strangers—so many vicious and inscrupulous men waiting for victims—sure to fall.

"I have seen 14-year old girls, the daughters of highly respectable parents, take up with strangers without the formality of an introduction and accept the small courtesies and later the insults of their escorts. In St. Joseph the girls enjoy greater freedom than in Benton Harbor, and the allurement there are more monotonous. The 'Bluff' has long borne a shady reputation and after nightfall is not frequented by ladies who have a keen sense of the moral responsibility expected of them. But at all hours of the night little girls are permitted to promenade in that resort with men whose sole purpose is to accomplish their ruin. Hundreds of women in these two cities commenced a life of sin in that place. They accompanied wicked men to the park, drank wine with them there, and so gradually became disposed of their virtue that they are unable to explain where the process began.

"Not a Sunday passes but that some pure girl is led astray under the environments of the Lake Front park. The gilded youth from Chicago drags the unwary girl into a flirtation. If he does not debauch her the first day of the acquaintance he carries on a correspondence and a week brings them together again. The second meeting is inevitably the fatal one. Unaccompanied by her father, her mother or brother, a girl on the streets on Sunday when the two cities are full of strangers, day or night, is exposed to influences that are bound to drag her down. The Lake Front park is the next door to the wine room which every girl will reach who regularly frequents the former.

"If parents are unable to see the degrading and contaminating effects upon their daughters of frequenting the streets unaccompanied by protecting companions the city authorities should take the matter in hand and pass a curfew ordinance that will place the children under the care of the police."

WILL GO INTO THE COURTS.

No Probability of the Big Four Conceding.

Although the state railroad board has approved the map of the Milwaukee, Benton Harbor & Columbus railway company, showing the crossing by that company of the Big Four and West Michigan railway tracks to the depot grounds of the former, the matter is by no means settled and there is little likelihood of its being settled out of the courts.

The two companies have opposed the crossing with considerable fervor and it is not reasonable to suppose that they will make concessions until the last resource is exhausted which will be the courts. If the crossing is made it will undoubtedly be by condemnation proceedings the same as private property is secured for a railway right-of-way.

PULLING UP BUSHES.

Large Farmers Going Out of the Berry Business.

Supervisor Rackliffe of Benton township has been in the fruit growing business for thirty years in this county and he never experienced a season where so little was to be made from his crops as the present season.

Twenty years ago when the yellows destroyed all the peach orchards in the county the farmers did not suffer then as he does now. He had fruit other than peaches to sell and he received good prices for his crop.

Mr. Rackliffe believes that the trouble is overproduction and that the large farmers who have converted their wheat and rye and corn fields into berry patches will be compelled to go back to grain and stock farming. The larger farmers are already grasping the situation and in every direction berry fields are being plowed up and crops insuring a profit planted in their place.

In fruit growing the big fish cannot eat up the little ones. The man with five or ten acres of land can pick and market his own fruit and in times of low prices he can sell for a price that would bankrupt the extensive fruit grower.

STATE CROP REPORT.

Apples in Michigan Promise About One-Third of an Average Crop.

WHEAT IS OF FINE QUALITY.

There Will Be But Seven-Tenths of the Average Potato Crop in the State.

LANSING, August 10.—The crop report issued for August is of universal interest.

The average yield of wheat per acre, as estimated by correspondents this month, is for the state 13.81 bushels; southern counties, 14.85 bushels; central counties, 11.18 bushels; and northern counties, 13.05 bushels. Compared with the estimate of July 1 there is an increase in the state and southern counties of about one and one-half bushels, in the central of 0.88, and in the northern 0.65 bushels.

Comparatively little threshing had been done when the reports were forwarded, but correspondents very generally report wheat turning out better than expected. A few exceptionally high yields are noted, but these at the most indicate no more than that a good crop has been harvested. A few such yields are always obtained in good wheat years. Actual threshings of more than single jobs are reported as follows:

Berrien county, 842 acres, yield 11.378 bushels, average per acre, 13.51 bushels.

Branch county, 105 acres, yield 2,103 bushels, average per acre, 20.03 bushels.

Cass county, 858 acres, yield 14,460 bushels, average per acre, 16.85 bushels.

Van Buren county, 118 acres, yield 1,537 bushels, average per acre, 13.03 bushels.

The crop has generally been secured in fine condition and is of good quality. The heavy rains in the central part of the state just at the close of harvest did some damage but it was not extensive. In a few fields the grain sprouted. In answer to question as to quality 342 correspondents in the southern counties report it good, 70 average, and 3 bad; in the central counties 86 report it good, 44 average, and 4 bad, and in the northern counties 43 report it good, 21 average, and 1 bad.

The average condition of corn in the state is 87, comparison being with average years. Oats are estimated to yield about 26 bushels per acre. This crop is not yet all secured, and the work has been somewhat delayed by rain.

Potatoes promise about seven-tenths, and beans nine-tenths of an average crop.

Apples now promise in the state about one-third, in the southern counties one-fourth, and in the central counties two-fifths of an average crop.

Yellowstone Lake.

"There is an individuality about lakes. Perhaps the most striking thing about Yellowstone lake is its high altitude. It is up among the mountains and clouds in Yellowstone park nearly a mile and a half—7,741 feet—above where the sportive summer girl sits on the beach at the Atlantic ocean while the lazy wavelets ripple about her dainty toes. But as high as it is the mountains rise higher still by thousands of feet. In a solemn, owl-like fashion they blink down at the lake, and the lake blinks back at them. These mountains are well defined peaks, and cones, and turrets, and nearly all are named. Some of them are in this way redolent of the old explorers, the men who first braved the perils and difficulties of an unknown, untrodden wilderness. Such are Colter peak and Mount Doane."

The above is taken from "Wonderland '97," a beautiful new Tourist book published by the Northern Pacific railway. It will be mailed to any address upon receipt of six cents in stamps by CHAS. S. FEE, Gen'l Pass. Agent, St. Paul, Minn.

THE Grand Rapids Press figures that the Michigan wheat crop will sell for $19,000,000 this year, an increase of $11,000,000 over last year's crop. The wave of prosperity ought to touch Michigan without the aid of politicians.

THE closed safe at the office of the Benton Harbor electric railroad company is one of more than average size and it is marked "Courtright Manufacturing Company." The railroad company never paid for the safe and it is practically the property of Charles G. Davies. In changing the combination and running away from the order of the court Vice President Deam has greatly added to his unpopularity. Mr. Deam cannot hope to regain the complete confidence of the community.

ALBERT Yendes, of this city, sends a long letter to THE NEWS in which he writes the Bible story of the creation of Adam and Eve in a tale of fiction and then calls it a silly story. Mr. Yendes says that if he had been Adam he would not have waited 15 minutes in the Garden of Eden before he had eaten all the apples on the forbidden tree. THE NEWS cannot agree with Mr. Yendes, but not for any reason is the publication of the letter rejected. To print it there would be aroused a religious controversy out of which no good would come.

The story of the horse named and the young doctor.
"One reads so many stories about animal intelligence that it would be hard to find a doubter to express his disbelief in almost any gathering of men at the present day," remarked Dr. W. W. Watkins. "A little instance, came within my own observation a number of years ago when I was studying medicine and which convinced me that the members of the horse family at least ought to be credited with the possession of a very considerable quantity of reasoning power. It was the custom for the students at the medical institution at which I pursued my studies to wear a small badge upon their coats to distinguish them from others at the college. A horse belonging to the establishment was used a great deal about the medical department, and the animal seemed to have a special preference for the embryo doctors more than for any other people about the establishment."
"One day, while a number of us were gathered in a little knot upon a small campus in the rear of the college, the animal in question, which used to nip the grass in the location, came toward the group limping very badly. He came to a stop a dozen or more feet from the crowd and, carefully surveying the lot of us, finally made up his mind as to what he wanted to do and without any hesitation limped directly to my side, whinnied, stuck his nose against my body and held up his left foreleg. Looking down, I discovered a large nail imbedded in the frog of his hoof. This had evidently caused the lameness. I then realized the interesting fact that the animal desired attendance. I extracted the nail with some difficulty, and the horse whinnied with relief and walked away. Rather curious as to why the beast had picked me out to attend to his wound, I glanced at the boys and found the solution to the problem. Not one of the group had his medical badge upon his coat but myself. The horse had recognized the insignia, realized its significance and acted accordingly."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

AFRAID OF THE HOODOO.
Why the Street Car Conductor Would Not Cut the Passant in Train.
A horse crossed the track and the motoneer put on the brakes so suddenly that the car nearly stood on its nose. Then he sat down on the front seat to await the passing of the long string of carriages following the black draped vehicle.

A fat man who had nearly been thrown over the front rail by the sudden stopping of the car snorted angrily: "Why don't you cut across? I've got to catch a train. I can't wait here all day."
"Can't help it, boss. You'll have to wait and catch another train."
"Well, I'll report you to the company. That procession will take five minutes in passing us."
"Report away. I can't help it if the procession takes 30 minutes. You couldn't hire me to run this car across that funeral procession for the best job on the line. That's the worst hoodoo a man could run up against."
"Bah!" said the fat man.
"All right, boss. I know what I'm talking about. One of the best men on this line crossed a funeral procession soon after the trolley system was put in. A live wire dropped on the back of his neck and electrocuted him before he'd gone a block. A little while later another poor fellow cut across back of a hearse. He ran over three children in as many weeks. He quit the road as crazy as a loon. Now the conductor on that same car has lost every cent he had in the world, and his wife and child have died. Bah, yourself! I'd like to see you get off this car and walk across in front of one of those carriages. I'll bet you'd be catchin' your last train in this world pretty quick. Jest hop off and try it now."
But the fat man only shifted uneasily about on the hard car seat and waited silently until the last carriage had passed.—New York Telegram.

How Bees Embalm.
Bees, says Horbia, can embalm as successfully as could the ancient Egyptians. It often happens in damp weather that a slug or snail will enter a beehive. This is, of course, to the unprotected slug a case of sudden death. The bees fall upon him and sting him to death at once. But what to do with the carcass becomes a vital question. If left where it is, it will breed a regular pestilence. Now comes in the cleverness of the insects. They set to work and cover it with wax, and there you may see it lying embalmed, just as the nations of old embalmed their dead. When it is a snail that is the intruder, he is, of course, impenetrable to their sting, so they calmly cement his shell with wax to the bottom of the hive—imprisonment for life, with no hope of pardon.

Both Wrong.
The Toronto Saturday Night tells of a man who kept a ferret being obliged to go into the country, leaving the cage with the ferret in charge of a neighbor till he should return.

The neighbor incautiously opened the cage door, and the ferret escaped, whereupon the owner brought a claim against him for damages.

The following was the decision of the learned magistrate before whom the case was brought.

"No doubt," he said to the neighbor—"no doubt you were wrong to open the cage door, but"—turning to the owner, "you were wrong too. Why did you not clip the brute's wings?"

The Franks took their name from the franciscans, or franciscans, which they thought was a goodly name.

EXCURSION to Michigan City next Sunday. Fare 25 cents for the round trip.

JOHN Trimble is erecting a new residence in the Pratt addition south of the city.

STREET Commissioner Shankland is grading and scraping Pipestone street above Britain avenue today.

Miss Marguerite Foster very pleasantly entertained a company of friends at her home on Empire avenue Monday evening.

REMEMBER the Congregational church social at the residence of Dr. Brooks, Pipestone street, Wednesday evening.

MEETING of the board of trade tomorrow night. Important matters are to be discussed. Every member is urged to attend.

FRANK Bullard, fined yesterday in Justice Baldrey's court for bathing in the St. Joseph river without a bathing suit, is a resident of Sodus township.

TRAINMASTER Courtright, of the Big Four, was in the city yesterday afternoon and this morning examining employees of the road for color-blindness.

F. E. BAXTER, who recently moved from this city to St. Joseph, is about to dispose of his property in that city and return to Benton Harbor. Mr. Baxter is a contractor and builder and can find a better field for his business here than in St. Joseph.

FRAZELL'S military band has changed its plans and instead of running an excursion to Ottawa beach it will make a trip to Michigan City next Sunday, on board the steamer City of Chicago. Tickets for the round trip will be sold for 25 cents.

A TYPOGRAPHICAL error in THE NEWS yesterday said that Barnum had a $12,000 house Saturday afternoon instead of a 12,000 house, meaning the number of people. In cash the circus took in about $10,000 here, several thousand of which went into the channels of local trade.

THE man in Benton Harbor best posted on the Klondike region is former postmaster, Edgar Nichols. At the drug store of Hall & Nichols he has maps and books giving all sorts of information and outside of them he has a great fund of information about the country and the mining.

ROUNDS & Warner, the real estate men, report business increasing. They sold the 10 acres belonging to Joseph W. Houser, situated three miles south of St. Joseph, to Bernard Fowler, a board of trade man from Chicago. Mr. Fowler will erect a beautiful summer home on his new purchase. Through the same agency John A. Mays purchased a house and two lots on Bond street yesterday, paying $1,000.

NILES Daily Sun: "Uncle Jim" Truitt can now get his mail at home, and his visits to Niles in the future will be less frequent. On Saturday last, through the influence of Congressman Hamilton, a new postoffice was established at Truitt's station. "Uncle Jim," however, won't have the pleasure of licking postage stamps, for he is not on the right side. That honor will go to James W. Smith, who has received the appointment.

UNDER the auspices of the Elkhart fire department a grand firemen's tournament and band contest will be held in Elkhart August 25, 26 and 27. All paid and volunteer fire departments and all uniformed bands are eligible as contestants. If possible Chief Johnson of the local department will attend the tournament with several of his men. The prizes awarded in the various contests are all liberal and should incite a spirited effort on the part of competing departments.

Yellowstone Lake.

"There is an individuality about lakes. Perhaps the most striking thing about Yellowstone lake, is its high altitude. It is up among the mountains and clouds in Yellowstone park nearly a mile and a half—7,741 feet—above where the sportive summer girl sits on the beach at the Atlantic ocean while the lazy wavelets ripple about her dainty toes. But as high as it is the mountains rise higher still by thousands of feet. In a solemn, owl-like fashion they blink down at the lake, and the lake blinks back at them. These mountains are well defined peaks, and cones, and turrets, and nearly all are named. Some of them are in this way redolent of the old explorers, the men who first braved the perils and difficulties of an unknown, untrodden wilderness. Such are Colter peak and Mount Doane."

The above is taken from "Wonderland '97," a beautiful new Tourist book published by the Northern Pacific railway. It will be mailed to any address upon receipt of six cents in stamps by CHAS. S. FEE, Gen'l Pass. agent, St. Paul, Minn.

White Dome Geyser Yellowstone Park.

"A mile and a half from the Fountain Hotel, and easily reached by bicycle, tourist wagon, or by walking, lies a hidden basin full of nature's caprices. At the entrance, as if on guard, stands the immaculate White Dome. As one approaches, he almost expects to be challenged and asked for a countersign. If such a challenge is given it is in a curious fashion, in the form of a geyser eruption, for the White Dome is a geyser. It is not unlike the Castle Geyser, or the White Pyramid of the Upper Geyser Basin. The geyser is a very white, rather dome-shaped mound, built up from the secretions of its waters, and is the most conspicuous feature of the locality. It is perhaps 25 feet high, with a circumference at the base of 75 or 100 feet. Its eruptions come at intervals of from twenty to forty-five minutes, being somewhat irregular, and the water is thrown to a height of from ten to twenty-five feet." Send six cents in stamps to CHAS. A MANTRAP CAB.

I was standing in a room of a west end (London) gambling den watching a party of about 15 players engaged in the game of roulette at noir.

This night my eye had been particularly kept upon a short, dark haired man, evidently a foreigner. He was playing heavily. From his pocket he brought up at first single pieces of gold, then, as he lost—he had terrible luck—he placed down on the table small handfuls of sovereigns. He had just now lost £10 at a swoop. Then he produced a banknote and laid it down.

"Excuse me, sir," inquired the banker, "how much do you shake?"

"One hundred pounds."

"Thank you," remarked the banker politely.

The game went on, and the cards were turned up. With an exclamation the player rose from his seat and pushed his chair back. He had lost once more. He left the place I followed him. He walked swiftly on for a long time through the now almost deserted streets, and it was nearly 3 o'clock in the morning. At length he came to a house in a dismal street off the Tottenham Court road, in one of the top rooms of which there was a dim light burning, opened the door with his key and entered.

I had an idea somehow that that address might prove useful to me, and I was standing close to the door noting the number when the door suddenly opened and my man again appeared, bareheaded, ghastly pale and breathless. "Help, help!" he gasped. "She has killed herself—she is dying! I have murdered her—murdered her!"

I dashed in, and, rushing up the stairs, made my way to that dimly lit room, the man following close at my heels. In it, sitting in a chair beside the fireplace, was a woman, young and pretty, but now with her face convulsed with pain. She seemed nearly unconscious and was breathing heavily. On the floor beside her was a small, round, pretty bottle.

Seeing him to wake up the people in the house and dispatch some one for a doctor, I had in less than five minutes administered an emetic to the girl in the shape of a strong dose of mustard and water.

As she lay there, apparently dying, I leaned over her, sobbing, tearful, his hair and talking in French.

And that crime was all for nothing. A thousand pounds! I have gambled my money away. Annette, forgive me. I ought I should make our fortune. At that scoundrel Repau shall give me money. I will make him."

What had Despard (that was his name) been up to? The arrival of the doctor, who saw to the girl and assured me he would answer for her recovery, brought my stay to an end.

I didn't sleep a wink that night. I kept one eye all through the weary hours on Despard's door. About 9 o'clock in the morning he came out, and, I following him, made his way to a house off Leicester square. He was inside an hour, and I discovered from one of the servants that he had called upon M. Belpard, another Frenchman. Was M. Belpard Repau? I wondered. Naturally enough, I wanted to discover something about him, and letting M. Despard have a rest I transferred my attentions to his friend.

Only a few minutes after Despard had left M. Belpard came out with a bag in his hand. He hailed a cab, was driven to Waterloo station, and took a first class ticket to Southampton. Unknown to him, I saw him off and was then driven back to his lodgings. Inquiring for M. Belpard, I said I was M. Belpard's particular friend, almost his brother. Alas, it was most unfortunate that I had missed him! I would, however, go to his room and write a letter to him.

Shown into Belpard's apartment, you may guess I very quickly examined it when the servant had left me to write that letter. There was nothing particular in the place save a black leather bag which I found under the bed, a common black bag with a mark on the brass part of the handle, the mark of a fire.

An hour later there were keen eyes at Southampton and at London on the lookout for M. Belpard, or, rather, for Repau, for he it was.

For over a week every watch was kept, every search made for that gentleman. All was in vain. M. Belpard had disappeared.

Despard was still at his lodgings. I called on him one day.

"M. Despard," I suddenly asked him, "would you like to earn £100?"

"A hundred pounds!" he gasped. "It would be a godsend—a fortune! We are absolutely starving—Annette, my wife, and I."

"Then," I said, "tell me where you are going."

"I am going all day," he almost me all day and I am going to the bank."

He paused a moment and then went on: "Repau has acted to me like a scoundrel. I'll tell all."

Thousands of pounds are conveyed daily from the chief London banks to their branch establishments in the suburbs or the city. A branch bank wanting cash sends a couple of clerks to the head office, the money required is placed in black leather bags, a cab (four wheeled) is hailed, the clerks enter with the treasure, and with the windows up are driven away to their branch office.

This practice has for many years past attracted the attention of gangs of clever thieves, and thousands of pounds are often lost in transit.

Shortly before my interview with Despard a sum of £5,000 in gold and £1,000 in silver had been taken.

About 10 o'clock in the morning two clerks from a branch had arrived at one of the biggest central banks, and producing their authority to receive the money the cash had been put into bags, a passing cab hailed, and the clerks and the cash seen safely into it.

They did not arrive at the branch office. Inquiry and search were made for them, and at length the two men were found unconscious, seated in a cab, of which the driver had disappeared in a byroad off Hampstead in the north of London. The bags of money had gone, and what had occurred to them the two clerks could not say. They had ridden on with the windows of the cab up, on their way to the branch office. Then they had suddenly lost their senses.

On examination it was found that the cab was a "make up" one. It belonged to no owner of cabs in London. It was a mantrap, devised for the perpetration of one of the cleverest robberies of modern times, a robbery in which it seemed we should never discover the actors, for weeks passed and no clew to them was found, though £500 was offered privately by the bank for their arrest.

It was by that mark on the handle of the black bag in Repau's room that I was convinced he was one of the thieves. The bag was one of the bank's, and the mark had been placed upon it for identification.

"I will tell you all," said Despard. "Repau was an acquaintance of mine. I was a mechanic. He came to me one day and said, 'Despard, have you heard of that new machine in which they kill cats and dogs?' I hadn't. 'They put them into an almost airtight box,' he went on, 'and pump in poisoned air. They are dead in no time. Despard, you are poor. I have a scheme by which we may make a fortune.'"

In a few words he laid his plot before him—to buy a cab, alter it so that when the windows were closed it would be almost airtight, while through a tube passing into the cab air powerfully drugged might be pumped into the vehicle by an arrangement worked by the driver's foot.

Despard set to work. In less than ten days the trap cab was upon the London streets. For three days it hovered around the bank doors. On the fourth it was engaged.

"The driver was, of course, an accomplice," went on Despard. "The apparatus worked wonderfully. Before they dreamed of danger the clerks were rendered insensible by the drugged air and were being driven to Hampstead, Repau and I following. In a quiet spot the cab stopped, Repau rushed to the door, threw it open, grasped the bags, sprang with them into our trap, and with the driver of the cab we all set off at full speed."

"And what became of the money?" I asked.

"I had £1,000," he answered, "the sham cab driver £400. Repau, like a scoundrel, laid hands on the rest."

"And where is he?" I asked eagerly.

Despard mournfully shook his head.

"I do not know," he replied.

He certainly did not. That reward of £500 slipped through my fingers after all, for Repau, that clever rascal, had shown us so clean a pair of heels that we never came up with him again. I would have given much to have once more met my "very dear friend, almost brother," M. Belpard, alias Jules Repau.—London Sun.

Trade Secrets.

"Quite irrespective of the immense number of workmen who hold trade secrets of their respective employers, few people ever realize what a number of workmen there are who hold small secrets—some of them may consist merely of a knack of doing some particular thing in a peculiar way—of their own, and most rigidly guard these," remarked a well known trades union official.

"I could cite many remarkable cases where workmen, on account of their method of doing some one apparently simple thing, have always been at a premium with various masters, and only the other day I was talking to the head of a great decorating firm about such a man."

"This firm has often, in decorating great mansions and public buildings, to carry out a certain scheme of color, and that one color has to be uniform throughout a great area of covered space. This firm had one man who, if 100 rooms had to be painted, could infallibly mix fresh supplies of color to the exact shade, but during its 40 years of existence the firm never had another workman who could do this."

"I could name for you 100 trades where some one man effects his object with a few strokes where others labor long and patiently, but what I want to impress on the public is that workmen possess and guard far more minor trade secrets of their own than the masters are apt to do." —Pioneer's Weekly.

It was the man who had the secret of the color.

REVENGE OF ANARCHY.

Significance of the Assassination of the Spanish Statesman Castillo.

"GETTING EVEN" FOR BARCELONA.

Where a Number of Reds Were Executed
for One of Their Characteristic Devil-tries—Goli's Confession His Purpose, Which Was Also to Avenge the Death of a Philippine Islander—Paris Comment on the Tragedy—Junta Manager Palma Expects
It to Help Cuba.

Madrid, Aug. 10.—Goli, the assassin, has confessed that he killed Senor Canovas del Castillo to avenge the Barcelona anarchists and the insurgent leader Don Jose Rizal, who was executed at Manila, Philippine Islands, on Dec.
30 last, as the instigator of the Philippine rebellion. Dr. Rizal denied that that he had drawn up the statutes of the Philippine League. In Goli's room the police found a large double barreled pistol. It appears that when he left the house Sunday he carried a parcel which is believed to have contained a bomb. The theory is that he hid this somewhere in the fields. A dispatch from Barcelona says that Goli arrived there in December, 1895, coming from Marseilles. He was employed in the printing office of the Review Social Science, managed by the anarchist Engineer Tarrida Marmel, formerly imprisoned in Montjuich fortress at Barcelona.

Cannot Be Tried as an Anarchist.
Goli was implicated in the terrible crime of the celebration of Corpus Christi, although he left Barcelona a few days before it occurred. He was denounced to the police for complicity, but he had already disappeared. It appears that Goli represented himself as a correspondent of El Populo. The prisoner cannot be tried under the laws providing for the trial and punishment of anarchists, as this law is so framed that a person prosecuted under its provisions must have used or attempted to use explosives in the commission or attempt to commit the crime charged against him. However, there is no doubt Goli will be summarily tried and sentenced. The public demands the adoption of stringent measures against anarchists and also against those who are in sympathy with them.

Remarkable Coincidence Possible.
Dispatches from Rome corroborated by a dispatch from Paris say that the real name of Goli is Giuseppe Santo.
If this is so it is a remarkable coincidence, for the name of the assassin of President Carnot was Cesario Santo.
A dispatch from San Sebastian says that Goli saluted Senor Canovas each morning with great politeness. His ef-fusiveness aroused the suspicion of the premier, who mentioned the matter to the proprietor of the baths only to be reassured by him. Goli confesses that he followed Senor Canovas to church and to other places, waiting for an opportunity when he could surely accomplish his purpose. He says he regrets that he has been unable to kill General Polavieja, who was governor general of the Philippines when Rizal was executed last December. He regards him as the murderer of Rizal.

Sagasta's View of the Case.
In the course of an interview yesterday afternoon Senor Sagasta, the Liberal leader, said: "The country's politics must not depend upon an assassin.
The Conservatives ought to remain in power under the guidance of men like Marshall Campos, Senor Pidal and Senor Elduayen. Nevertheless, if the queen regent appeals to the Liberals they are ready to respond."

Uncle Sam Sends Condolence.
Washington, Aug. 10.—Official notice of the killing of the Spanish premier reached the state department yesterday morning in the following telegram dated San Sebastian, Aug. 8, 1897:
"Canovas assassinated today by an anarchist. Have expressed profound sympathy."

The secretary of state immediately caused to be drafted the following message of condolence, which was forwarded to Minister Taylor, after having been submitted by telegram to President McKinley: "Your action approved.
Renew in name of the president his expression of deep sorrow and sympathy for the loss borne by Spain in the death of Senor Canovas del Castillo, the prime minister of Spain, one of the most eminent of the statesmen of our time, and convey condolence to family of the deceased."

SHERMAN.

HAVANA WAS WILDLY EXCITED

When She First Heard of the News, but She Soon Quieted.

Havana, Aug. 10.—The news of the assassination of Senor Canovas caused great consternation here. On its receipt the authorities and many prominent local politicians went to the palace of the captain general. The tidings soon spread and there was wild excitement on the stock exchange and throughout the city. Stocks and shares fell considerably. Captain General Weyler still remains in the field. At first there was acute anxiety with reference to the political effect of the death of Canovas, but when it became known that General Azcarra had assumed office confidence was restored and the effect of it was soon manifested on the exchange.

PARIS END OF THE PLOT.

Anarchists There Know All About What Was Going to Happen.

Paris, Aug. 10.—That the agitation against Senor Canovas del Castillo was widespread is evidenced by the fact that the police of this city recently tore from the lavatories of Paris placards inscribed: "Down with Canovas; The martyrs will be avenged. Long live anarchy!" and other expressions in Spanish grossly insulting to the queen regent and Premier Canovas. In addition the officials of the Spanish embassy here have received many threatening letters. It is stated that at a recent meeting of the Spanish refugees at Grenoble, capital of the department of Isere, one of the speakers declared that the assassination would soon be repeated and that the next victim would be Senor Canovas.

Persons interviewed at which the latter are quoted as declaring they had no previous knowledge of the crime which has just startled the whole world. The persons interviewed also claimed that the assassination of the Spanish premier was provoked by his persecution of anarchists. One of the latter, however, said: "It had to come. We have been expecting it daily. We knew a high personage was going to be attacked; but it might have been any other than Canovas."

OPINION OF THE CUBAN JUNTA.

Expressed by the Head thereof at the Gotham End of the Fight.

New York, Aug. 10.—At the headquarters of the Cuban junta yesterday
T. Estrada Palma talked briefly about the assassination of Spanish Prime Minister Castillo. He said that in his opinion Canovas was more responsible for the outrages in Cuba than Wey-ler, and his killing seemed to be an act of retribution. At the same time the Cuban party had nothing whatever to do with the death of Canovas, and had no knowledge that such an act was even contemplated by anarchists or any one else. Silvala, who was second to Canovas in power, although a member of the Conservative party has expressed the opinion that if he had the power and was in possession of the absolute knowledge that the Cuban disculty was the cause of a general uprising of Cubans and not of any clique, he would advise the Spanish to evacuate the island.

Palma said that from every view the confusion caused by the death of Can-ovas could not but help the Cuban cause.
The Cubans had no expression of sympathy to make for the act of the assassin, but at the same time Cubans could not but feel that they would benefit by it. Canovas had been threatened by the anarchists of Spain and of France, who are closely allied. Palma expressed the opinion that if Silvala should be selected to succeed Canovas General Polavieja would succeed Wey-ler. General Polavieja has recently returned to Spain from the Philippine Islands. The Cubans would not receive any more humane treatment at the hands of General Polavieja, as he is a believer, Palma says, in the Weyler methods of outrage and assassination.
The Cuban army had fought in a manner which had commanded the respect of all nations, while Weyler and his men had brutally murdered and committed outrages which called for the condemnation of all civilized people. In conclusion President Palma said that the Cubans would not accept less than absolute independence. The rooms of the Cuban junta were crowded with the members of the party, all of whom expressed themselves in condemnation of the act of murder committed by the Italian anarchist.

Castillo's Death Was Foretold.

Malaga, Aug. 10.—Old inhabitants of this city relate that when Canovas del Castillo was a young assistant master at a school here a gypsy woman told his fortune. She predicted that he would become great and that he would meet with a violent death.

Cleveland's Comment on the Assassination.

Buzzards Bay, Mass., Aug. 10.—Ex-President Cleveland learned of the assassination of Senor Canovas del Castillo, yesterday morning. In reply to a query Cleveland said: "I very much deplore the shocking death of the eminent statesman who has fallen a victim to anarchistic rage. The world's civilization may well contemplate the terrible event with gloomy apprehension."

FACTION FIGHT IN A CHURCH.

Trouble Between Primitive Methodists
and Seceders from the Faith.

Dodgeville, Wis., Aug. 10.—As a result of a church war between two factions of the Primitive Methodist church over the change of name to the Congregational church four priests were made last evening in the persons of T. H. Arthur, Frank P. Hocking, George Buntin and William Prideaux, who are charged with taking possession of the Congregational church unlawfully. The complaint charges them with entering into a conspiracy to injure the Plymouth church congregation, and of forcibly taking and entering the church building while armed with revolvers and guns.

The trouble which has been brewing
in the church for some time culminated Sunday when one of the factions took possession of the church and prevented services from being held all day, which was the cause for the above arrests.
It is a case in which a majority of the congregation went over to the Congregationalists and want to take the church property with them, which the "faithful" object to.

ONE WRECK FOLLOWS ANOTHER.

Result Being Death for Two Engineers and Serious Hurts to Others.

Portland, Ind., Aug. 10.—At 11 o'clock yesterday morning a south-bound Grand Rapids and Indiana freight train went through the bridge spanning the Wabash river a mile north of Geneva. The engine and tender fell into the river and cars piled up over them. Engineer Barney Reidt and Fireman Gallagher went down with the engine. The former had both legs crushed and was otherwise badly injured; he will die. Fireman Gallagher and Brakeman James Clifford were severely injured.

Owing to the wreck traffic over the road was suspended and passenger trains were sent from Portland and Decatur by way of Celina, O., over other lines. The south-bound Grand Rapids passenger train, due here at 2 p. m., while making the detour, was wrecked two miles north of Coldwater, O. The train left the track and Engineer Brown, of the Mackinaw road, was killed and Engineer Anderson and Fireman Golden, of the Grand Rapids train, were seriously injured.

FARMING IN THE SOUTH.

NO DROUGHTS, GENIAL CLIMATE AND

ADAPTED TO SETTLEMENT BY NORTHERN FARMERS.

Almost every variety of grains and grasses grown in the North can be successfully grown in the South, but the crops that give best results for the money invested and labor expended are fruits and vegetables. Cotton is no longer King in the South. This wonderful change may possibly have been brought about by the large number of Northern farmers that have located at so many points on the Illinois Central and the Yazoo & Mississippi Valley railroads in the States of Kentucky, Tennessee, Mississippi and Louisiana, and carried with them the

PRACTICAL IDEAS OF DIVERSIFIED FARMING

as practiced in the North. No country in America can compare with southern Mississippi and northern Louisiana for the cultivation of fruits and vegetables, and the time is not far distant when this locality will supply the early markets of the North and Northwest. All who contemplate a change of location should investigate this favored section, to aid in which, send for a free copy of the

There are few cities where the police department is more thoroughly organ- ized than it is in this city. The rules are vigorous and are enforced with the same strictness as in cities where the department includes 10 times as many members. The officers here have other duties than those of walking their beats and making an occasional arrest. They are required to report defective side- walks, all cases of ill-treatment of dumb animals, and wear uniforms. Chief Crowley has made the police depart- ment what it is.

CAR HORSES HARD TO GET.

The Demand Is Now So Small That the Trade Neglects Them.

One of the most curious effects of the general replacing of horses by electrici- ty and cable traction for drawing street cars is being experienced by one of the extensive car lines in this city which still uses horses. One would suppose that, since the only lines in the whole country which continue to use horses now form but a very small percentage of those which used them five years ago, these lines would have a much wider range of choice and could get horses of a grade superior to the gen- eral run of those which used to be offered to them. Remarkable as it may seem, this is the exact opposite of the truth.

The New York city line referred to runs in direct competition with the cable lines of the upper west side, and the managers, who recently purchased it, determined as soon as they came in- to possession to place upon it a superior lot of horses, and in this way improve its running until mechanical propulsion could be introduced. Orders were sent out to buy the needed horses. Much to the surprise of the managers, it was discovered that there were almost no street car horses of any kind to be bought.

The explanation of this situation lies in the fact that since the demand for street car horses almost ceased the trade machinery by which they were gathered has fallen into disuse. A few years ago the street car horses were one of the most important features of the horse market. They were animals of a stand- ard grade and of almost stable price, and every part of the country contributed its quota. The street car horse had to be big and able and sound of limb and wind, but it might be of any age. Few lasted long enough in the service to make the question of a few years more or less of any consequence. The demand was constant, and the price never varied in New York more than from about $125 to $150 each. Dealers could always count upon getting this price and get- ting it promptly, and as a consequence every horse which would answer the purpose was a safe investment at a lit- tle smaller price, and a clean profit of $10 a horse was regarded as a fair mar- gin in handling them.

Horses of all sorts, which lacked the qualities of speed, beauty or youth, but possessed the other requirements, were quickly sorted out from the markets of the whole country, and every big dealer was always able to gather droves of car horses as fast as the companies needed them. The trolley has superseded the car horses, and car horses are no longer quoted, as staples in the market. The companies which still use them are obliged to go out and search the marts and buy them one by one instead of simply sending out an order for 100 or 200 or 500 and getting them as readily as they would so many loads of hay or grain. —New York Sun.

White is more universally becoming than any color. It is worn by the newly born as well as by the aged and symbolizes the purity of one as well as of the other. The general desire of mankind is to live to be very old, and often indeed extreme age induces pride not only in the aged one him- self or herself, but in the aged one's rela- tives. To have a connection well on in the nineties, or even a friend, is to have a sort of reflected glory. Persons who have achieved nothing in the world of letters or art may nevertheless acquire distinction through the mere merit of long life if it extends beyond the usual limits. For very old ladies nothing is more charming than pure white, which recalls the innocence and helplessness of infancy and harmonizes with the sunny hair and pallor of old age. White caps, white kerchiefs and cuffs, even white gowns in warm weather, are the fit accompaniments of white hair and a color- less skin.

Nevertheless there is no reason why an aged woman should not wear colors if she prefers them.

GIRL'S COSTUME.

Picturesqueness is the pro- rogative of great age. It is no longer nec- essary to cater to the figure, the complex- ion, the style. Age reduces all to one level, and it is only requisite to observe the de- mands of dignity and picturesqueness.

The sketch given in today's issue shows a costume for a girl of 11 or 12 years of age. It has an accordion plaited skirt of red foulard. The accordion plaited bodice of foulard is ornamented with horizontal bands of guipure and is closed at the left side under a plaiting of red foulard. The close sleeves have an epaulet of guipure falling over a full plaiting of red mousseline de soie. The collar and belt are of black satin. The hat of red straw is trimmed with red and white plaid ribbon and black quills.

IT IS A GOOD SAFE.

The One in the Office of the Benton Harbor Electric
Railroad Company.

EXPERTS CANNOT OPEN IT.

One Individual, a Friend of Mr.
Deam, Wants the Job for
the Sum of $10.

Every safe agent or expert who visits Benton Harbor finds his way by a sort of instinct to the office of the Benton Harbor Electric railroad company where the large safe is locked and the combination carried away in the head of the Vice President of the company, Henry D. Deam.

As a usual thing the safe men want big pay for doing the job, asking $1 for the first hour and 50 cents for each succeeding hour. Others are frank enough to admit that the five-wheel combination cannot be picked except by chance in a lifetime.

The other day a safe man, a bright young German, came along and declared that he could open it in a few hours. He worked faithfully all day and at night gave up in despair.

A young man in this city claiming to be a safe expert, wants to open the safe for the sum of $10 and has made several visits to the office of the company to explain his proposition. His offers have been rejected as it is believed that Deam has divulged to him the combination and that the $10 will be divided between the safe expert and the vice president.

The officers of the company are not anxious to have the safe opened unless Deam opens it. They are willing to bide their time and wait until Deam comes here on a week day and the order of the court is served upon him and he marches down to the office like a chicken to the dough and gives up the combination which he wrongfully and secretly gave a safe not his own.

TAKES A VACATION.

Probate Judge Van Riper Leaves for
the Pine Woods.

Probate Judge Van Riper left last night on a four weeks' outing among the lakes and pine woods of northern Wisconsin. He took with him a complete angling outfit and will spend his time fishing for black bass, pike and muskallonge.

The judge has not had a vacation in four years and the close confinement and arduous duties of his office have had a disastrous effect on his nervous system, which he hopes to overcome in the northern woods.

The duties of the office in the absence of the judge will be in charge of C. M. VanRiper, clerk of the probate court.

AMONG THE CRIMINALS.

Edward Jeslain Obtains Bail and is Released.

Edward Jeslain, accused of attempting a murderous assault upon Officer O'Brien, was admitted to bail late yesterday afternoon and pending his hearing Thursday before Justice Graves will enjoy the freedom of a common citizen. His bail bond, given in the sum of $2,000, contains two sureties, Charles Young and Monroe Morrow.

Edward Shipley and Charles C. Hall are having a trial by jury before Justice Baldrey this afternoon on the charge of assault and battery, committed upon Emanuel Brunbaugh yesterday. The defendants are represented by Lawyer Davis and the people by Prosecutor Valentine.

John Larson, the Swede who resisted First Mate Russell of the steamer City of Chicago Sunday afternoon, while the latter was trying to restrain the rebellious passenger, was charged with drunkenness and paid a fine of $5 and costs in Justice Baldrey's court. He was arrested by Officer Walker.

The rain yesterday afternoon was instrumental in placing at least $3 in the city treasury of St. Joseph. Wheelmen were not inclined to ride along the streets in the mud and in many instances turned their silent steeds onto the sidewalks. Three cyclists were so unfortunate as to let the officers see them on the walks. They each paid $1 fine and costs. Their names are William Roeder, Nelson Maher and Lloyd Shepard.

Officer Crawford arrested two "drunks" today and invited them to enjoy the hospitality of the city jailer until they sober up.

A young lady boarding at the American house in St. Joseph reported to the police that she had been held up and robbed of $2 last night at the hotel. The police are investigating the case.

Peach Trees.

We have the finest lot of seedling trees in Berrien county, nearly twice as large as those of any other local concern. We will bud to order without additional cost, any variety that you may wish to furnish buds from. Several orders are already in. Budding will begin at once.

THE WEATHER.

Fair tonight and Wednesday, slightly cooler tonight.

THE NEW FACTORY.

It Will Begin Operation Here September 15.

The Kalamazoo company which is disposed to bring its big implement factory to this city, will be ready to commence manufacturing here September 15, next. The company asks that the city furnish a building, and further than this it has no demands to make.

President Miller announces a meeting of the board of trade to occur tomorrow night when a committee will be selected to secure a building favorable for the location of the new industry. The company manufactures farming implements, sulkies and light wagons, and is doing an extensive business at Kalamazoo, running on full time continually. The object of bringing the plant to Benton Harbor is to acquire better shipping facilities.

The factory will start with 20 men and increase the number as the demand for the products require. The company is composed of men of financial means and the fact that no bonus is asked indicates that the company is acting in good faith in seeking a location here.

Every member of the board of trade should demonstrate his interest in the city's welfare by attending tomorrow night's meeting.

A $40,000 HOTEL.

Its Construction in Benton Harbor
Is Contemplated By Eastern Capitalists.

ARE LOOKING FOR A LOCATION.

Hall & Nichols Have Been Approached and Invited to Fix a Price on Their Property.

Representatives of a syndicate of eastern capitalists are in Benton Harbor and are looking for a site here upon which to construct a hotel at a cost of $40,000.

Hall & Nichols, the owners of the very desirable corner lot upon which their drug store now stands, were approached by the hotel proprietors this morning and invited to fix a price on the property. Other holders of desirable properties have been interviewed regarding the value of their possessions and the business-like way in which the promoters of the new enterprise are seeking to obtain land indicates good faith on the part of the syndicate to establish a magnificent hotel in Benton Harbor.

Before another day it is expected that the site will be secured, and the assurance given that work on the contemplated structure will begin at once. As proposed the hotel will be constructed on a very elaborate plan, its appointments to be luxurious and convenient.

There is need of such a structure in Benton Harbor and the proposition should be heartily encouraged.

BIG CARGO OF COAL.

It Is Delivered Here to the Benton
Fuel Co.

The schooner Middlesex, in tow of the barge James H. Prentice, arrived in port this morning with a cargo of 800 tons of coal for the Benton Fuel company. The cargo is being discharged over the Big Four docks. The barge carried a heavy cargo of coal which she is unloading at the dock of Wallace & Son, St. Joseph.

CAR FERRY NO. 4 HERE.

It Arrived This Morning With 18
Loaded Cars.

In spite of the prediction that Benton Harbor had seen the last of the car ferries, ferry No. 4 arrived at its dock in this city about 9 o'clock this morning carrying eighteen loaded cars for traffic over the Big Four.

Just when the boat will return to Manitowoc is not known but it is expected that the business will be such that by the first of next month three or four trips will be made each week.

FACTORY BUILDING BURNED.

Buchanan Has a Property Loss of
Several Thousand.

BUCHANAN, August 10—Fire yesterday destroyed the abandoned factory building owned by Black & Willard. The loss will not exceed $2,000. The factory had not been in operation for years. A few years ago the machinery was removed and the building converted into a skating rink. Lately it has been devoted to no particular purpose. It is supposed the building was fired from a spark from a locomotive on the Milwaukee, Benton Harbor & Columbus.
